

Little Cypress Creek Preserve – May 1, 2010

Tony Bullard

Tony Bullard

Tony Bullard

The 2010 participants enjoyed an afternoon of relaxing nature walks, fun learning activities, and gentle paddles down Little Cypress Creek.

*photos courtesy of Tony Bullard at Chron.com and Legacy Land Trust.

Tony Bullard

Families wrapped a non-traditional maypole and Commissioner Eversole recognized the Eagle Scouts for their fantastic scout projects at the Little Cypress Creek Preserve.

A shaded picnic lunch with heartfelt presentations was followed by guided nature tours and learning demonstrations.

Adults and children learned about our native plants and animals including our local trees, wildflowers, and freshwater critters.

